As of April 2022, there are 2,668 billionaires across the world. Sixteen of those billionaires live in Washington State.

Those 16 billionaires are:

“The United States has some of the highest levels of income and wealth inequality in the world. U.S. Federal Reserve data shows that the wealthiest 10% of Americans control $93.8 trillion, more than double the $40.3 trillion in the hands of the remaining 90% of Americans.... Across the state of Washington, the average income among the top 20% of households by earnings stands at $262,118. The cohort accounts for 49.6% of all income earned in Washington. Meanwhile, the average income among the bottom 20% of households by earnings is just $18,576, accounting for 3.5% of all earnings statewide.”
